Dear Horace:-

I don't know how to answer your last letter at all. I can't see that it is any reply to what I wrote you at all. And I have never wanted to see Pitt or Lilliam ^{if it can be helped} at all. Yet all that I have ever said about both of them regarding Papas estate is true. I want no Fla. land and if any body has any offer to make me for my interest in the estate I would like to hear it.

I don't think the matter can be settled without an administrator and Pitt advised that course himself in his first letter to me all but that does not necessarily mean a law suit.

In your letter to me some time ago I did not understand that you wanted me to send you any money but if I had I could not have sent it as ~~it~~ it ~~it~~ took all that I had to get started here and I haven't got $10.00 to my name today.

Your bro.

Howard.
